STEEL MINISTER COMMENDS ON SAIL'S EMPLOYEES' 94% ATTENDANCE ON SEPTEMBER 2 STRIKE

Steel Minister Chaudhary Bhendra Singh on Friday commended employees of state-run SAIL on clocking 94 per cent attendance on a day when central trade unions called one-day nationwide strike, in which workers from public sector undertakings such as Coal India participated. "SAIL, the leading steel producer in the country, with more than 80,000 employees in different parts of the country registered overall attendance of 94 per cent," the country's largest steel maker said. Proactive awareness drive and concerted action lead to normal operations on the day of strike in SAIL and other PSUs under the Steel Ministry, it added. Steel Minister has congratulated employees for their commitment and dedication to work. He urged the employees to continue working with the same spirit and enthusiasm in the times to come. While reviewing the situation in discussions with the PSU's top officials, he highlighted the recent measures taken by the Centre for the welfare of workers and worker unions. These include raising minimum wages, ensuring strict compliance of labour laws and registration of trade union in 45 days, the statement said.
